

Intervention by MC MACHON-HONORE,
President of the NGO-UNESCO Liaison Committee
Executive Board 12-04-19 Item 14 206 EX/14

As Chair of the ICNGO and NGO-UNESCO Liaison Committee, I represent some 400 institutional NGO partners rich in multidisciplinary and cross-cutting competences, and whose values and priorities are aligned with UNESCO.

The Liaison Committee is already in line with this comprehensive partnership strategy with the setting up of a taskforce reflecting on a more effective and relevant partnership with UNESCO.

The Liaison Committee is also a member of the CCNGO Education 2030 coordinating group, working in synergy with the Education stakeholders, UNESCO Chairs and ASPNET for SDG4, key pillar of the 2030 Agenda.

Youth and gender equality are crosscutting priorities in our strategy.

The organization of international NGO-UNESCO fora has accrued the visibility of UNESCO's actions like the ones on Climate Change and Science more recently, enriching them with innovative practises and a unique mobilisation capacity.

NGOS in official partnership with UNESCO wish to be associated with a comprehensive partnership strategy in accordance with the ideals and values of UNESCO so as to leave no one behind.
